A PROCLAMATION, Adjourning the Parliament to the 13. of Decemb. 1694.

WILLIAM and MARY by the Grace of GOD, King and Queen of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, Defenders of the Faith, To Our Lyon King at Arms, and his Brethren Heralds, Macers of Our Privy Council, Pursevants, Messengers at Arms, Our Sheriffs in that part, conjuncly and severally, specially constitute,

Greeting: Forasmuch as We by Our Proclamation of the date the Twenty fourth day of July last, with Advice of the Lords of Our Privy Council, did Adjourn the Currant Parliament of this Our ancient Kingdom, until the Twenty fifth day of October instant; and Our Affairs not requiring the meeting thereof at that time, We have thought fit that the Adjournment thereof shall be till the Thirteen day of December next to come: Therefore We, with Advice of the Lords of Our Privy Council, do hereby Adjourn Our said Currant Parliament untill the said Thirteen day of December next ensuing the date hereof; Requiring all the Members of Our said Parliament to attend that day, in the usual way, and under the Certifications contained in the several Acts of Parliament made thereanent. OUR WILL IS HEREFORÉ, and We Charge you stricly, and Command, that incontinent these Our Letters seen, ye pass to the Mercat-Cross of Edinburgh, and to the Mercat-Crosses of the remanent Head-Burghs of the several Shires of this Our Ancient Kingdom, and there by open Proclamation make Intimation that Our said Parliament of this Kingdom is Adjourned to the said Thirteen day of December next to come. And ordains these presents to be Printed.

Given under Our Signet at Edinburgh, the Thirty day of October, and of Our Reign the Sixth year.

Per Actum Dominorum Secreti Concilii.
GILB. ELIOT Cls. Sti. Concilii.

GOD save King VVilliam and Queen Mary.
